Summary: On June 17, 2004, Rolla Huff, Chief Executive Officer, Mpower Communications Corp. (Mpower), met with Tom Long, advisor to Cmmr. Lynch, Cmmr. Kennedy, and Cmmr. Peevey in three separate meetings in San Francisco. In the meeting with Cmmr. Kennedy also participated Karl Bemederfer, advisor to Cmmr. Kennedy. Andrew Lipman, a Board Member of Mpower and a partner in the law firm of Swidler Berlin Shereff Friedman, LLP, and John Clark, a partner in the law firm of Goodin, MacBride, Squeri, Ritchie & Day, LLP, attorneys for Mpower, attended the meetings. Written materials (attached to the notice) were used. Mpower representatives expressed strong objection to the increases to basic two-wire loop rates that currently are proposed by the draft and alternate decisions. Mpower representatives explained that, as a consequence of the manner in which both the draft and alternate decisions have approached the calculation of prices for unbundled loops, Mpower's ability to sustain its operations in California is now under serious threat. Mpower representatives also observed that the draft and alternate decisions did not take reasoned approaches to determine TELRIC prices. Finally, Mpower representatives urged the Commission to carefully consider the impacts of any true-up before it is adopted.
